

FSE English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI) Specialist & Teacher Trainer Program EMI Advisor Scholarship

Grant Description and Purpose

The FSE English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI) Specialist & Teacher Trainer scholarship program provides qualified EMI instructors or professors with the opportunity to spend 6 or 11 months as EMI Advisors and consultants for FSE / MOE EMI program participants who are teaching in EMI programs. Advisors also advise and supervise the teaching assistants in the English Teaching Flagship (ETF) program who are supporting and interacting with university students.

The program aims to enhance professional expertise through visits, observations, consultations, and coordination with Taiwanese universities that are internationalizing their academic programs. Advisors contribute to create a better EMI teaching and learning environment in Taiwan and help EMI instructors enhance the quality of the EMI courses.

Duration

The duration of the grant is 6 or 11 months beginning. With the Selection Committee's approval, renewal may be considered. The following are the duration dates of the grants.

- (1) Aug. 1st to June 30th of the grant year (11 months)
- (2) Aug. 1st to Jan. 31st of the grant year (6 months)
- (3) Jan. 1st to June 30th of the grant year (6 months)

Benefits

- Monthly stipend of NT$65,000 - NT$90,000 (depending upon the qualifications of the grantee).
- Round-trip airfare between Taiwan and current residence (for non-Taiwan residents).
- A settling-in allowance of NT$36,000 in the first month of the grant.
- National Health Insurance.
- Travel reimbursement for transportation costs incurred in traveling between locations; hotel reimbursement up to NT$3,000 per night for business travel between locations.

- Workshops: For each 18-week semester, each advisor runs approximately 4 different weekday EMI workshops that focus on practical applications (rotating weekly among different locations).
- Reports: Provide written feedback on up to 16 American grantees' bi-weekly reflective reports.
- Teaching observations: Attend and comment on classroom observations each semester.
- Consultation: Provide individual advice to American grantees and EMI instructors and professors regarding teaching pedagogies and EMI teaching techniques and tips.
- Organize training forums and teacher training programs.
- Camps: Instruct the American grantees about the content of the English Camps in remote areas and their sites as part of American grantees' community service.
- Cultural Events: Participate in host family gatherings, Dragon Boat Festival, American grantees' school interviews, and so on.
- Office Hours: There is a requirement of checking in to the base offices approximately 3 days per week. If there is any in-person training session or team meetings, it is mandatory to participate.

Application Procedure

We are accepting applications on a rolling basis. Please contact us at ENteaching@fse.fulbright.org.tw

Required Documents

- Statement of Purpose
Tell us about your experience and why you are interested in applying for this grant and why you want to do teacher training, especially in Taiwan. Additionally, we would like you to provide some examples or ideas that can be used in your workshop.
Format: PDF file with single space and 12-point Times New Roman font. The length of the statement should be no more than two pages.
- English CV
Your most-updated resume with your current contact information (phone number and email address).
- Academic Transcript
The scanned copy of the academic transcript of your highest degree with the school's seal.
Format: PDF file.
- Degree Certificate (Diploma)
A scanned copy of your highest academic degree certificate or diploma with the seal of the school.
- 2 Recommendation Letters
A recommendation letter from your latest employers, supervisors, or institution. It must contain the recommender's name, title, institution, and contact information.

FSE X MOE English Teaching Flagship Awards

Join our program to sharpen your teaching skills and be immersed in the local culture of Taiwanese communities!

The Foundation for Scholarly Exchange (FSE) is in cooperation with Taiwan's Ministry of Education (MOE) to help achieve its bilingual policy goal.

This scholarship program is renowned for its strong support systems, professional teacher training advisors, abundant cultural exchange opportunities, and day-to-day assistance.

Duration: 11 months, August 1st, 2024 – June 30th, 2025; renewal for an additional year is possible by application.

Benefits

ETF	ETF+
Monthly stipend: NT$53,000 (which includes a monthly benefit of NT$5,000 for professional development for learning Chinese and relevant education certificates)	Monthly stipend: NT$63,000 (which includes a monthly benefit of NT$5,000 for professional development for learning Chinese and polishing teaching techniques)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Round-trip airfare between Taiwan and the USA• Settling-in allowance of NT$26,000 at the beginning of the grant period• National Health Insurance eligibility• One-month free housing (August, 2024)

ETF Application Eligibility

Nationality: Applicants must be US citizens.

Teaching Experience Requirements (meet one of the following):

- Applicants who have received the Fulbright ETA awards or ETF awards.
- Applicants who are currently teaching English in Taiwan or other countries.
- Applicants with at least one year of English-teaching experience.
- Applicants with a Master's degree in TEFL or English-teaching-related majors.
- Applicants selected from the affiliated universities with FSE.

you need to provide it for us no later than June 30th, 2024.

Responsibilities & Expectations

Grantees in the FSE (Foundation for Scholarly Exchange) English Teaching Flagship Program may solo teach or co-teach with Taiwanese teachers in elementary schools, junior high schools, or universities with support from local coordinators and professional advisors.

The grantees will be invited to submit their preference for the locations they prefer; they are also welcome to continue their grant at the same site.

Locations: Taipei, New Taipei, Taichung, Changhua, Yunlin, Kaohsiung, Yilan, Hualien, Taitung, Kinmen, Penghu, Chiayi, Pingtung

- Summer Training: Assisting the training and other support for new ETAs and local teachers in August.
- Workshops: For each 18-week semester, each recipient will participate in at least 3 different weekday afternoon workshops and may be invited to share some teaching resources or teaching demonstrations.
- Reports: ETFs will submit at least 3 written reports per semester.
- Teaching Observations: Will be held at least once a year.
- English/Bilingual Teaching Forum: ETFs will be invited to organize training forums and teacher training programs.
- Remote Service Camps: ETFs will be invited to assist and lead the ETAs to organize the content of English/Bilingual Camps in remote areas as community service.
- Cultural Events: ETFs will lead and explore the cultural activities in their communities.
- Community Service: ETFs shall complete eight hours of community service, which promotes person-to-person connections and genuine contributions to communities, each semester.

Application Portal: <https://fseawards.fulbright.org.tw/member/login>

Deadline: 23:59, March 8th, 2024 (UTC/GMT+8:00, Taiwan time)

Should you have any questions or require assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out to ENteaching@fse.fulbright.org.tw

Apply now!

2024-2025 FSE English Teacher Trainer Program

TEFL Advisor Scholarship

Grant Description and Purpose

The FSE English Teacher Trainer scholarship program provides qualified TEFL teachers or professors with the opportunity to spend one year as Academic Advisors for Fulbright English Teaching Assistants (ETA) and English Teaching Flagship (ETF) participants who serve at K-9 levels. Advisors work with the Americans and their counterparts Taiwanese Local English Teachers (LETs).

The purpose of the program is to enhance professional expertise through visits, observations, consultations, and coordination. By supervising these outstanding Americans and Taiwanese English teachers, the Advisors contribute to create a better English Teaching environment in Taiwan.

Duration

The duration of the grant is 11 months: August 1st, 2024 ~ June 30th, 2025

With the Selection Committee's approval, renewal for a second and final 11 months may be considered.

Benefits

- Monthly stipend of NT$65,000 - NT$90,000 (depending upon the qualifications of the grantee)
- Round-trip airfare between Taiwan and current residence (for non-Taiwan residents)
- A settling-in allowance of NT$36,000 in the first month of the grant
- National Health Insurance
- Travel reimbursement for transportation costs incurred in traveling between locations; hotel reimbursement up to NT$3,000 per night for business travel between locations.
- The grant experience offers close professional interactions with Taiwanese TEFL teachers and local professors; recipients have many opportunities to travel around the island, visit major cities and see beautiful remote areas, including the indigenous areas.

Application Procedure

We are accepting applications on a rolling basis, please contact us at ENteaching@fse.fulbright.org.tw

Required Documents

- Statement of Purpose
Tell us about your experience and why you are interested in applying for this grant and why you want to do teacher training, especially in Taiwan. Additionally, we would like you to provide some examples or ideas that can be used in your workshop.
Format: PDF file with single space and 12-point Times New Roman font. The length of the statement should be no more than two pages.
- English CV
Your most-updated resume with your current contact information (phone number and email address).
- Academic Transcript
The scanned copy of the academic transcript of your highest degree with the school's seal.
Format: PDF file.
- Degree Certificate (Diploma)
A scanned copy of your highest academic degree certificate or diploma with the seal of the school.
- 2 Recommendation Letters
Two recommendation letters from your latest employers, supervisors, or institution. It must contain the recommender's name, title, institution, and contact information.
- Copy of R.O.C ID Card/ U.S. Passport:
A scanned copy of your U.S. passport / R.O.C. ID Card. Please avoid reflection on the photo.
- 10-minute Teaching Demo Video (optional)
To have the selection committee know you better, it is great to provide a 10-minute clip of your workshop if you like. It can be a demonstration of how you will teach your workshop or a recording of your real workshop. The workshop can be on any topic you think will be beneficial to the ETFs and ETAs. Your 10-minute clip/demonstration should be uploaded to your YouTube channel and provide the link.
Please share the YouTube video with ENteaching@fse.fulbright.org.tw