

MOE Taiwan Studies Project Review

The Ministry of Education of the Republic of China first began establishing partnerships with outstanding universities around the world to promote worldwide research interest in Taiwan more than a decade ago. Your university successfully applied to enter a partnership to establish a Taiwan Studies Project. The Ministry of Education is planning to set up a Taiwan Studies Project website, giving brief outlines of the Taiwan Studies projects at different universities, to further promote worldwide research interest in Taiwan.

Could the designated person responsible for implementing the Taiwan Studies Project at your university please provide details and a brief description of the Taiwan Studies Project and its current status, using the headings set out below.

Not all details provided (for example, details of the educational background of the designated person responsible) will be put on the Ministry's Taiwan Studies Project website. Please limit the length to two A4 page, using Times New Roman font, font size 12, 1.5 line spacing.

Please also provide: a photo of the designated person responsible; interesting photos and videos (use youtube form) of project-related activities, or publications; and links to webpages related to project activities that may be publicly accessed online.

Under the Project Outline heading, please mention the aim (s), and key focus and features of the Taiwan Studies Project, such as Taiwan Studies courses, scholarly visits and exchanges, participation in international conferences, symposia, film festivals, and publications.

Under the Project Overview and Impact heading, the person responsible for the project should give their personal assessment of the project's contribution to vibrant Taiwan Studies related interdisciplinary academic research and teaching. Please also include personal feedback received from other scholars and students under this heading.
