April 8-13, 2024

APRIL 10: TRY A TAIWANESE TREAT 5:30-6:30PM | University Commons

Visiting Taiwanese Scholar Lily Chih-Hsuan Tsao will teach students to make ice cream spring rolls. These treats are made with spring roll pastry wrappers, peanut powder, pineapple ice cream, and cilantro.

Join us in a game of Jianzi, a traditional Chinese sport where players try to keep a heavily weighted “featherball” in the air similar to hacky sack. Or stop by to see your name written in Chinese characters.

Directed by Heather Tsui, this film is set amidst the Indigenous Tao community and follows Ma Na Wei’s journey to reclaim pride in his heritage through an Aboriginal Dance Competition.
