外籍學人來臺研究漢學獎助

Research Grant for Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies

有鑒於中華文化及漢學學術的重要性，政府於民國70年責成國立中央圖書館（後更名為國家圖書館）籌設「漢學研究資料及服務中心」（76年起易名「漢學研究中心」），致力推展海內外漢學研究。

30多年來的經營擘畫，成效頗著，在國內為人文研究奠定了堅實的基礎，在海外為臺灣樹立了優良的學術形象。

提供的服務如下：

- 獎助學者來臺研究
- 舉辦各項學術活動
- 建置臺灣漢學資源中心
- 拓展海外學術交流
- 編印漢學研究論著
- 提供漢學資源服務

The National Central Library established the Chinese Studies Information and Service Center in 1981. In 1987, its name was changed to the Center for Chinese Studies tasked with the responsibility of promoting Chinese studies in Taiwan and abroad, and efforts over the last thirty years have led to much success.

The center has established a firm foundation for humanities research in Taiwan.

Internationally, it has also created an image of outstanding scholarship conducted by Taiwanese scholars.

The main responsibilities of the center are as follows :

- Supporting foreign scholars and their research in Taiwan
- Holding various academic activities
- Establishing the Taiwan Resource Center for Chinese Studies abroad
- Expanding international scholarly exchange
- Publishing works on Chinese studies
- Providing resources and services on Chinese studies

Research Grant for Foreign Scholars in Chinese Studies

- This program is aim at foreign professors, associate professors, assistant professors (including post-doctoral researchers) and doctoral candidates in departments related to Chinese studies at foreign universities, as well as researchers at related foreign academic institutes. The research should be undertaken in Taiwan, and be focused mainly on Taiwan or Chinese studies.
- CCS provides assistance with research expenses, research materials, liaison with universities and research institutions, and use of CCS facilities, etc.
- Research tenure is one month to one year.
- Applications should be submitted to the CCS by May 31 of each year before the year in which grants are intended to be used; notification of CCS's decision will be given by the end of August of the same year after a careful review.
- Applications should include the following documents:
  1. Application form
  2. Curriculum Vitae (including a list of publications)
  3. Research plan
  4. Letter(s) of recommendation
- Grantees are entitled to travel subsidies and research subsidies. Eligibility for travel subsidies is restricted to foreign scholars who currently reside abroad; those already in Taiwan are not eligible.
- Subsidies available under the Research Grant Program are as follows:
  1. Travel subsidies: One direct round trip economy class air ticket from the domicile of the grantee to Taipei will be provided by CCS. Travel expenses will be reimbursed upon the grantee's arrival in Taiwan on the basis of the ticket stub and receipt.
  2. Research subsidies: To be paid at the beginning of each month and divided into four levels: professor associate professor, assistant professor (including post-doctoral researcher), and doctoral candidate. Researchers at academic/research institutes will also receive grants according to the above scale. The actual amount of research subsidies is determined by CCS and any adjustments to those amounts will be decided upon by the CCS Advisory Committee.
- Grantees must sign a contract with CCS and observe the following regulations:
  1. No outside employment is allowed without the prior approval of CCS. Concurrent acceptance of a grant from any other organization in the R.O.C. is not permitted.
  2. Participation in all scholarly research activities arranged by CCS is required.
  3. All regulations must be observed when using CCS and National Central Library facilities.
  4. A research report or paper must be submitted to CCS by the end of a grantee's research tenure.
- Scholars who receive a grant under the Program must wait a minimum of three years after completion of their research projects before applying again.
