2026 MOE Taiwan Scholarship Program Guidelines

Purpose of Taiwan Scholarship

The Ministry of Education (MOE) of the Republic of China established the Taiwan Scholarship Program to encourage outstanding international students to undertake degree programs in Taiwan.

What are the benefits of the scholarship?

1. Tuition (including Credit Fee) and Miscellaneous Fee Subsidy: MOE will pay for each recipient the above-mentioned tuition and miscellaneous fees up to NTD 40,000 per semester; where the amount is over NTD 40,000, the remainder of all costs shall be covered by the recipient.
2. Stipend: a monthly stipend of NTD 15,000 (approx. USD 540, subject to exchange rate) for undergraduate, or NTD 20,000 (approx. USD 720, subject to exchange rate) for graduate recipient will be distributed through the school to cover their living and other expenses. Undergraduate recipients enrolling from the 2026 academic year will receive monthly stipend through June 30 of the year of graduation.

Other expenses may include, but are not limited to “Thesis Advising Fee” , “Insurance” , “Dormitory Fee” , “Computer & Internet Fee” , etc. These and any additional expenses will be solely the responsibility of the recipient.

How long is the award period?

The award period for each study program varies as follows:

1. Bachelor’s program: maximum 4 years.
2. Master’s program: maximum 2 years.
3. Doctoral program: maximum 4 years.

The maximum duration of each recipient’s total award period is 5 years.

Scholarship quota

In the year of 2026, three Taiwan Scholarships will be available for applicants from the Southwest areas of the USA who are applying for the Bachelor, Master or Doctoral Programs. Applicants who have a permanent address or are currently enrolling or have been enrolled within the past 3 years full-time in a university located in the following areas: Southern California, Arizona, New Mexico, Hawaii, Caroline Islands, Guam, Marshall Islands, Mariana Islands, and American Samoa.

Eligibility

An applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

1. Be a US citizen.
2. Be a high school graduate or above, have excellent academic performance in his/her most recent formal educational study experience, be of good moral character and not have any criminal records.

A person in any of the following categories is ineligible to apply:

1. An R.O.C. national (See Dual Nationality), or an overseas Chinese student (See Overseas Compatriot Students).
2. A person who already has and is continuing to maintain student status at any university/college in Taiwan or who has already registered to begin studies at such a university/college. This restriction does not apply to a student who will be graduating after completing a degree that year. They may apply for a Taiwan Scholarship to pursue a higher degree.
3. A person who has already studied in Taiwan for a degree at the same level as the one in which they currently intend to enroll.
4. An exchange student or dual/joint degree student who has been admitted to a university/college in Taiwan in accordance with an academic cooperation agreement between that university/college and an overseas university/college.
5. A person who has already been a Taiwan Scholarship recipient for a total of five years.
6. A person who has ever previously had their Taiwan Scholarship or MOE Huayu Enrichment Scholarship revoked.
7. A person who has received any other scholarship or subsidy from any Taiwan Government institution (organization) or any education institution in Taiwan, apart from any subsidies provided for a Taiwan Scholarship recipient by their university/college to cover the outstanding amount if the total amount of their tuition and other fees exceeds the scholarship limit.

Please note, applicants must apply directly to the university/college for admission within the application deadline. Each university/college sets its own application deadline.
